

Spa Villas, Coche Island

A location of beauty...

We are proud to offer this complex of just 28 lavish spa villas tucked away on Coche Island.

The villas are built amongst the tropical vegetation and include one master bedroom complete with wardrobes, two luxurious bathrooms, spacious living accommodation, kitchen and storage area. Additional sleeping accommodation is also available. The properties also benefit from a spacious veranda complete with a personal running seawater pool and jacuzzi.

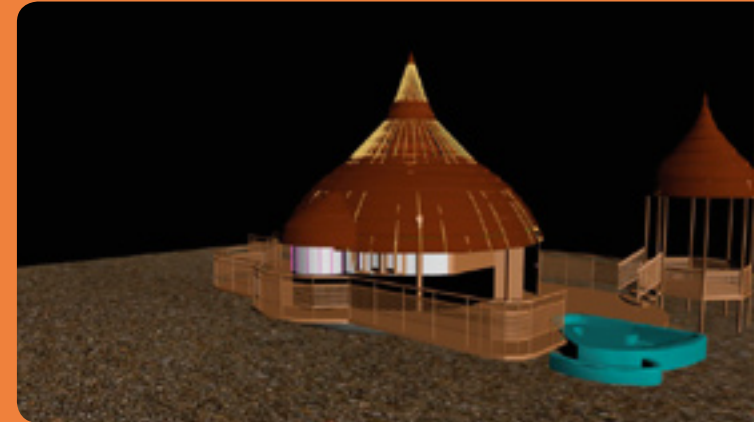

The whole concept of Isla Coche Spa Resort is to allow guests to unwind in a Caribbean paradise, with an opportunity to discover true peace, tranquillity and rejuvenation in the height of luxury.

At the centre of the complex is the main pool, which is surrounded by sun terraces, lush tropical gardens and reserved shadow Churuatas. There is a cafe restaurant and an in-pool bar.

Every Spa Villa is complete with air conditioning and the unique elegant interior provides a sense of pure harmony with well designed areas allowing for private spa treatments.

Coche Island lies just 8 miles south of Margarita Island off the north east coast of Venezuela and has a surface of 11km long and 6km wide. There are beautiful, tranquil beaches for visitors to enjoy and pristine turquoise water.

This five star resort will be a haven for luxurious pampering offering an extensive menu of internationally acclaimed treatments leaving guests spoilt for choice. Guests will also be able to dine in the a la carte restaurant offering a variety of mouth-watering themed menus accompanied by the finest wines and quality entertainment.
